

FISCAL NOTE

HB 1281 - SB 1638

March 6, 1997

SUMMARY OF BILL: Broadens the definition of "restaurants" for liquor by the drink purposes to allow coffee houses meeting certain criteria in municipalities with populations exceeding 100,000 to sell alcoholic beverages when mixed with coffees, teas, and other beverages.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues - Not Significant

Increase Local Govt. Revenues - Not Significant

Assumes that the number of such coffee houses meeting the criteria is not large enough to generate a significant increase in state and local government tax revenues.
